Stefano Piani, Literature, Cinema and Comics

Starting from an analysis of the novel The Road (by Cormac McCarthy), the masterclass provides key guidelines for adapting and rewriting a text for different expressive languages. In this case: the novel La strada/The road (by Cormac McCarthy, 2006) becomes a film (The road, by John Hillcoat, 2009) and a graphic novel (La strada, by Manu Larcenet, 2024).

AGES 15 AND UP

Treasures in Comics – Stories That Leave a Mark.

Second Edition | Pimentel (SU), Italy | September 4–7, 2025

The international comics festival promoted by the Municipality of Pimentel and the cultural association Assonanze returns, with the patronage of the Sardinia Regional Government and the collaboration of the Joyce Lussu Library System and the Tesaura Cooperative. This year's theme is "Literature and Speech Bubbles": a journey through words and images exploring the encounter between comics and literature, through different styles and creative visions. Special guests, talks, exhibitions for all ages, and masterclasses for young people and adults will animate Pimentel over four days, with selected events also streamed live. An opportunity to discover comics as a rich, inclusive, and constantly evolving language.
